Re: Implementation of Prohibitive Measures – High Impact Event – Spring Break

It has been determined that February 26, 2022 through April 3, 2022 will be a High Impact Event (Spring Break); therefore, prohibitive measures will be implemented pursuant to City of Fort Lauderdale Ordinance C-19-03, Sec. 8-55.5.

The prohibitive measures are as follows:

- 1) The prohibition of all electric or motorized scooters and other micromobility programs on the barrier island. The barrier island means and includes beach property up to and including the westernmost bank of the intercoastal waterway to the west, Southeast 17th Street to the south and Northeast 42nd Court to the north.
- 2) The prohibition of coolers.
- 3) The prohibition of tents, tables, and similar structures from 900 block of Seabreeze north to the 1700 block of North A 1 A.
- 4) The limitation of live or amplified music from 900 block of Seabreeze north to the 1700 block of North A 1 A.
- 5) The prohibition of possessing or consuming alcohol on the beach property from 900 block of Seabreeze north to the 1700 block of North A 1 A.

This notification shall be filed with the City Clerk and delivered to all appropriate City and local media outlets.
