Jim Dinneen
MGT Approved Independent Executive Recruiter
www.GovHRjobs.com

Dear Mr. Dinneen:

I would like to be considered for the position of City Attorney for the City of Fort Lauderdale, Florida. I have served as an attorney for the City of Fort Lauderdale since 2003.

My legal experience includes advising government officials and employees on the laws affecting local government, reviewing and drafting complex agreements, drafting resolutions and ordinances, and preparing municipal charter amendments. My legal experience also includes labor and employment, finance, procurement, information technology, utilities, bankruptcy, employee health benefits, and managing outside counsel.

Included with my application is my résumé and a list of five references. I am confident that my experience, judgment, and proven record of leadership qualify me to lead the City Attorney's Office.

I look forward to progressing in the selection process, and hope to have the opportunity to serve as the City of Fort Lauderdale's next City Attorney. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Paul G. Bangel

To: All concerned
Re: City of Fort Lauderdale, City Attorney position

Along with this letter, I am submitting the attached resume for your review in consideration for selection as the City of Fort Lauderdale City Attorney.

The City of Fort Lauderdale City Attorney position qualifications reflect my 30 + year legal career experience (primarily in Broward County, FL) in public entity law, regulatory law, government law and compliance; knowledge of government process (including public records law, Sunshine Law, and "shade" meetings), public speaking skills and communication prowess.

- Specific experience includes:
 - Counsel for public boards, municipalities, and public hospital systems
 - External general counsel for start-ups to 8,000 employee entities
 - Local government law-land use, contracting, regulatory compliance and ordinance drafting
 - Counsel for litigation matters in US District Court, state court, administrative hearings
 - Elected municipal office

As a former elected official (Commissioner, Mayor, Oakland Park, FL) and long-time Fort Lauderdale resident, I also possess a unique perspective and hands-on knowledge of local government legal issues and a commitment to the community.

I welcome the opportunity for consideration to serve as Fort Lauderdale's City Attorney.

Very truly yours,

Shari L. McCartney

Honorable Members of the City of Fort Lauderdale Commission:

I am writing to express my strong interest in the position of City Attorney for the City of Fort Lauderdale. With over twenty-eight (28) years of relevant experience in municipal law, government administration, and public policy, I am confident that my experience aligns seamlessly with the legal and strategic needs of the City. My background in legal compliance, risk management, and fiscal oversight coupled with deep commitment to ethical governance qualifies me to serve as a trusted legal advisor and advocate for the City of Fort Lauderdale.

Throughout my career in Broward County, I have provided comprehensive legal counsel to city commissions, department heads, and elected officials on a broad range of issues; including land use, code amendments, public finance, labor relations, regulatory compliance, and public safety. My ability to navigate complex legal frameworks while balancing fiscal responsibility has enabled municipalities to make informed, legally sound decisions that align with both legal obligations and long-term strategic goals. Additionally, my litigation background has allowed me to protect the City’s interests while promoting proactive risk management strategies.

Some key highlights of my experience include:

- Managing and overseeing all legal matters for a local municipality for over 28 years, including providing legal counsel on multi-million-dollar municipal budgets, ensuring strict compliance with city code, state and federal regulations.
- Successfully negotiating and drafting contracts, intergovernmental agreements, and procurement policies and regulations to safeguard public assets while fostering responsible governance.
- Defending the City in litigation, mitigating financial exposure, and achieving favorable outcomes that protect municipal resources.
- Advising on police legal matters, and staying at the forefront of evolving legal standards, and ensuring law enforcement policies align with constitutional and legal requirements.

My passion for public service, combined with my extensive legal background, position me to provide the City of Fort Lauderdale with the highest standard of legal representation. I am committed to upholding integrity, legal excellence, and public trust in every aspect of my work.

I welcome the opportunity to meet with you to discuss my qualifications and candidacy in further detail. Thank you in advance for your time and consideration. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your team.

Sincerely,

Angela Petti Rosenberg
