And

Fort Lauderdale Community Redevelopment Agency, a community redevelopment agency organized pursuant to Chapter 163, Part III of the Florida Statutes (“CCCRA”).

RECITALS

Whereas, the CCCRA was created in part to improve the appearance of the Central City Community Redevelopment Area (“CCCRA Area”); and whereas, the CCCRA has created a program for exterior improvements for Owner(s) in the CRA Area, which may provide, at the discretion of the CCCRA,

- A) up to Ten Thousand Dollars $10,000 for certain exterior improvements of homestead/owner-occupied, detached single-family homes, and homestead multi-family properties containing (2) to (4) units; or
- B) up to Five Thousand Dollars $5,000 for certain exterior improvements of investment properties which include detached single-family homes and multi-family properties containing (2) to (4) units.
- C) up to Five Thousand Dollars $5,000 for certain exterior improvements of properties owned by returning applicants who previously participated in the Residential Façade and Landscape Program.

TERMS

Now therefore, in consideration of one or more of the following activities to be conducted on the Property, the Owner(s) thereof hereby grants to CCCRA a right of entry and access to the Property and a waives liability against CCCRA, its employees, agents and public officials, for activities conducted under this Agreement in order to perform only those improvements specifically selected by the Owner in the “Type of Improvement Requested” section of this Agreement (the “Work”). For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Work” shall mean only those improvements expressly selected by the Owner(s) and approved by the CCCRA.

- _____ Painting of the exterior, in accordance with the selection made by the Owner(s)
- _____ Landscaping, in accordance with the selections made by the Owner(s)
- _____ Installation or repair of sprinkler/irrigation system in accordance with the selections made by the owner(s)
- _____ Exterior lighting, in accordance with the selections made by the Owner(s)
- _____ Superficial Fence Repair or enhancement visible from the street in accordance with the selections made by the Owner(s).
- _____ Driveway repairs, in accordance with the selections made by the Owner(s)
- _____ Fence repairs and/or installation, in accordance with the selections made by the Owner(s)
- _____ Front yard tree trimming, in accordance with the selections made by the Owner(s)

Contractor Selection and Documentation

The Owner(s) may select a qualified Contractor(s) of its own choosing to perform the Work. Prior to any disbursement by the CCCRA, the Owner(s) must provide adequate and sufficient documentation that they have obtained a least one (1) estimate from a qualified Contractors for each type of Work. The Owner(s) shall submit a signed estimate between the Owner(s) and the Contractor(s), along with a copy of the Contractor(s) license, and proof of insurance, and such other information as requested by the CCCRA. CCCRA reserves the right to reject any Contractor(s) it deems unqualified in its sole discretion.

Compliance and Permitting

The selected Contractor(s) shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations in connection with the performance of the Work, as defined in this Agreement. The selected Contractor(s) shall be responsible for securing all necessary permits and approvals required to perform the Work and shall provide proof of permit issuance to the CCCRA and the Owner(s) prior to commencement. All associated permit fees shall be the responsibility of the Owner, unless otherwise approved in writing by the CCCRA.

Disbursements and Payment Procedures

A Notice of Commencement is required and the CCCRA must be listed on the Notice as an additional party to receive notice to Owner(s). The CCCRA may, at its sole discretion, make one or more disbursements, including advance, partial, and final payments, provided that all required documentation has been submitted and verified. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the CCCRA reserves the right to issue a joint check payable to the Owner(s) and the Contractor(s) and to withhold payment to the Owner(s) and issue a check directly to a subcontractor or lienor providing notice to owner to the CCCRA. In some instances, the CCCRA may require partial and/or final releases of liens in its sole discretion.

Proof of Permits as Condition of Payment

As a condition precedent to the disbursement of any payment under this Agreement: for any advance or partial payments, the Owner(s) and/or their Selected Contractor(s) shall provide the CCCRA with satisfactory proof that all applicable permits required by the Department of Sustainable Development (DSD) have been duly obtained. For the final payment, the Owner(s) and/or their selected Contractor(s) shall provide the CCCRA with satisfactory proof that all required permits related to the Work have been successfully closed out, including evidence of final inspection approval and permit closure by the City's inspectors. CCCRA have no obligation to authorize or release any payment until the applicable documentation is received and verified.

Advance Payment for Permits and Related Expenses

The CCCRA may, at its sole discretion, authorize an advance payment of up to thirty percent (30%) of the approved project amount to cover permit fees and related upfront expenses. To qualify for such advance, the Owner(s) and/or their selected Contractor(s) must provide supporting documentation, including but not limited to: invoices or receipts from DSD; proof of material purchase costs directly related to the approved scope of work; a copy of a signed estimate between the Owner(s) and the selected Contractor(s); and any other documentation reasonably required by the CCCRA to verify the expense. Any advance payment issued under this section shall be deducted from the CCCRA's final funding disbursement.

- In no event shall the CCCRA's total contribution exceed the maximum program award of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) for homestead properties or
- $5,000 for investment owned properties or
- $5,000 for returning applicants who received funding under the Residential Façade and Landscape Program.

The Owner(s) shall remain solely responsible for all costs exceeding the maximum award.

Funding Limitations

The maximum funding assistance available under this Agreement is Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) for homestead/owner occupied properties. Whereas, the maximum funding assistance available under this Agreement is Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for investment owned/tenant occupied properties and returning applicants who previously received funding under the Residential Façade and Landscape Program. If the total cost of improvements exceeds this amount, the Owner(s) shall be solely responsible for all additional costs. The CCCRA will disburse its contribution only after completion of the approved improvements and verification by CCCRA staff, in accordance with the disbursement procedures set forth in this Agreement. Any advance payment authorized pursuant to the Advance Payment for Permits and Related Expenses section shall be applied toward, and not in addition to the applicable maximum program award.

Residency/Occupancy Requirement

The Owner(s) represents and warrants that, at the time of application, the Property is a detached single-family residence that is either (i) occupied by the Owner(s) as their primary residence, or (ii) occupied by a tenant pursuant to a valid lease agreement. The Owner(s) further agrees to maintain the Property as either owner-occupied or tenant-occupied for a minimum period of five (5) years following completion of the improvements. At the sole discretion of the CRA Executive Director or CRA Manager, properties consisting of five or more residential units may also be considered for participation. If the Property is sold, transferred, or left vacant during this period, the Owner(s) may be required to repay a portion of the funds on a graduated basis. Specifically, if the sale, transfer, or vacancy occurs within one (1) year of completion, one hundred percent (100%) of the funds may be subject to repayment; within two (2) years, eighty percent (80%); within three (3) years, sixty percent (60%); within four (4) years, forty percent (40%); and within five (5) years, twenty percent (20%). After five (5) years from the completion of the improvements, no repayment shall be required. Repayment obligations shall be at the sole discretion of the CCCRA.

Homeowners' Association (HOA Approvals)

The Owner(s) acknowledges and agrees that, for properties located within deed-restricted communities or otherwise subject to the authority of a homeowners' association, condominium association, cooperative association, or any similar governing board or architectural review committee (collectively, "HOA"), the Owner(s) shall be solely responsible for obtaining all required approvals, consents, or authorizations from the applicable HOA prior to the commencement of any Work. The Owner(s) shall provide the CCCRA with written confirmation of such approvals as a condition precedent to the disbursement of any funds under this Agreement. The CCCRA shall have no obligation to obtain HOA approval on behalf of the Owner(s) and shall not be liable for any denial of approval, enforcement action, lien, or other remedy pursued by the HOA in connection with the Work.

This right of entry and waiver of liability granted by the Owner(s) is a requirement to access the funds under the Residential Enhancement Program (the "Program"), which was established by the Fort Lauderdale Community Redevelopment Agency Board of Commissioners. The purpose of the Program is to provide assistance to qualified owners to landscape, paint the exterior of their homes and/or complete other improvements to the façade of their homes.

This right of entry and access to the Property is hereby granted by the Owner(s) to the CCCRA and its Contractors(s) and their subcontractors thereof, employees, and authorized agents, for the purpose of accomplishing the above purpose. The Owner(s) agrees and warrants to hold harmless CCCRA, its officers, agents, employees or assigns for damage of any type, whatsoever, either to the above described Property or to any persons present thereon and hereby releases, discharges and waives and releases CCCRA from any action against CCCRA, its officers, agents, employees, or assigns from all liability to Owner(s), Owner(s)'s children, relatives, guests, representatives, assigns, or heirs, for defects in the work product, bodily injury, death or property damage that Owner(s) may suffer in connection with any activities on the Property, whether caused solely or partially by the CCCRA, its officers, agents, employees, or assigns.

I/we have read this Right of Entry and Liability Waiver Agreement, or it has been read to me/us, and I/we fully understand its terms, understand that I have given up substantial rights by signing it, am aware of its legal consequences, and have signed it freely and voluntarily without any inducement, assurance, or guarantee being made to me and intend for my signature to be a complete and unconditional release of all liability to the greatest extent allowed by law.

After the improvements are completed, Owner(s) agrees to maintain the improvements at his or her own expense. CCCRA shall have no obligation to maintain the improvements. Further, CCCRA shall have no liability for any defects in the quality of the product.

Owner(s) understands and acknowledges if he or she does not understand the legal consequence of signing this Agreement, he or she is encouraged to seek the advice and counsel of an attorney.

WHEREOF, the undersigned has caused this Right of Entry and Waiver of Liability Agreement to be executed on this _____ day of _____, 20____.
